

The purpose of the FCC is to act on the behalf of ALL Americans, not just the Industry groups. This proposal would require modifications of all computers owned by Americans, and effectively cripple these machines. A side impact is that American manufactured computers, being crippled in this manner, would no longer be purchased abroad. This would seriously injure American Computer Manufacturers, such as Intel and Sun.

-Steve